

What is Travel Medicine?

A medical specialty offering pre-travel immunizations, medications, and health assessments to help protect your clients and their families against travel-related illnesses and diseases.

Why VirtualTravelClinic.ca?

- First fully virtual travel clinic offering national service coverage, making it the most convenient clinic in Canada
- All cases are handled by an ISTM-certified physician
- Medications can be mailed at no additional charge
- Vaccines are administered through Rockdoc's nationwide network of Community Partner pharmacies

You're not expected to know everything about travel medicine, especially since destination-specific guidelines change frequently.

Remember, we are here to support you!

Talking Travel Medicine

Below are some conversation starters and phrases to prompt discussing travel medicine with your clients, and adapt according to your approach.

- "You may want to consider (or 'I recommend') a medical consultation with our partner VirtualTravelClinic.ca"
- "They will assess your (1) individual health history, (2) destinations, and (3) planned activities before recommending and providing prescription medications, vaccines, and even over-the-counter meds."
- "For your own peace of mind, a pre-travel medical consultation can keep you safe and prepared."
- "They offer free delivery on your medications, even refills."
- "Visit the lagoon, not a doctor's waiting room!"
- "Stay off the throne, get out and roam!"

"Travel insurance protects your money, travel medicine protects you!"

Pass the ball to us and we'll chat with them:

- "Their website is a great resource; I'll send you a link."
